

Condition report – Residential rental agreement

Residential Tenancies Act 1997 Section 35(1B)
Residential Tenancies Regulations 2021 Regulation 18

This page provides information about a condition report and how to complete a condition report at the beginning and end of the rental agreement.

- A condition report must be completed at the start of every residential rental agreement (rental agreement). It is important that the renter completes this report in detail as it records the state of the premises at the start of the rental agreement.
- Keep the condition report in a safe place. It will help to resolve disputes over cleaning, damage, safety or missing items at the end of the agreement.
- Take photos that show the condition of items, fixtures and fittings. Fixtures and fittings are items considered to be part of the premises. Photos should be taken at the beginning and at the end of the tenancy.
- The renter and the residential rental provider (rental provider) or agent should sign and date all extra pages.
- Renters can fill in a condition report and give it to their rental provider if they are not given one.

At the start of a rental agreement

At the start of a rental agreement and before the renter moves into the premises, the rental provider or their agent must:

- fill in, sign and date the condition report;
- add extra pages to the report if there is not enough room when listing items;
- give two copies of the signed report to the renter to fill in their part (or one copy if sending electronically).

At the start of a rental agreement, renters must:

- fill in, sign and date the report within 5 business days after moving in. A completed report can help describe the condition of the property, if there is a later dispute about the renter's responsibility for damage or cleaning.

When filling out the condition report, the renter should:

- include comments where they disagree with the description of an item and note anything which seems unsafe, insecurely fixed or needs repair.

Note: where the condition report lists something needing repair, this provides the rental provider with written notice of the issue. If the rental provider does not carry out the repairs within a reasonable period of time, the renter can apply to the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (VCAT) for an order requiring the repairs to be carried out.

- take photos that show the condition of items - especially if the renter does not agree with what is on the form. Identify the location in which the photo is taken, including the date, and send a copy to the agent or rental provider together with the amended condition report.
- tell the rental provider or their agent about any defect that could be a threat to safety. For more information on reporting safety issues, see the Renters Guide or the Consumer Affairs Victoria renting web pages - www.consumer.vic.gov.au/renting.

Correcting a condition report

Renters may not be able to see if all the items in the condition report are working when they fill in the report. If they subsequently find that something is not working or in poor repair, renters can apply to VCAT to correct the report. This must be done within 30 days of the start date of the rental agreement. VCAT may order that the condition report be amended.

At the end of the rental agreement

At the end of a rental agreement, the rental provider or their agent must:

- complete the final inspection and fill in the condition report within 10 days after the end date on the agreement.
- give the renter an opportunity to attend the inspection if possible.
- allow for fair wear and tear as this does not count as damage caused by the renter.

Note: Where the renter is a victim of family or personal violence, VCAT may order that they not be held liable for any loss or damage caused by the alleged perpetrator of that violence.

Important notes

Rental providers and renters should take photos of the premises. They should be taken close-up to show the detail regarding the structure, fixture or fittings being photographed and at a distance for perspective.

Photos should be dated, labelled and attached to this condition report, in hard copy or electronically; they should identify the location or room. Photos may be useful in a dispute about the condition of the property.

If there is not enough space to list all items, attach a separate sheet.

The rental provider/agent and the renter should sign and date any additional attached pages.

Part B – Start of rental agreement condition report

RENTAL PROVIDER/AGENT to complete these columns - For each item, select all that apply and provide relevant comments. - If an item is not applicable, tick N/A. - If an item is not listed, use 'other' to specify. - If you are unable to test whether a particular appliance is in working order, for example, due to an absence of electricity, you should write, 'unable to assess'	RENTER to complete these columns - Indicate if you agree with the rental provider's/agent's assessment. Provide comments against each item if you disagree, feel that something is unsafe or needs repair or want to add more details. - Tick where you have attached photos to support your comments. You may wish to number the photos and provide the number in the 'Photos' column.
